TOBACCO LICENSE DEFINITIONS

"Retailer" means any person who sells tobacco product to consumers, and any vending machine in which tobacco products are sold.

"Vending machine operator" means any person operating one or more tobacco product vending machines on property or premises other than his own.

"Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of importing, exporting, producing, or manufacturing tobacco products who sells his product only to licensed wholesalers.

"Sub-jobber" means any person doing business in this state who shall purchase all of his stamped tobacco products directly from a licensed wholesaler and who sells all of his tobacco products to other licensed sub-jobbers, vending machine operators, and retailers.

"Wholesaler" means any person doing business in this state who shall purchase all of his unstamped tobacco products directly from a licensed manufacturer, and who shall sell all of his products to licensed wholesalers, sub-jobbers, vending machine operators, retailers, and those persons exempted from the tobacco tax under RSA 78:7-b.

"Sampler" means any person who distributes free tobacco products to consumers for promotional purposes.

If you are not selling tobacco products, please return the application with a notation to that effect.
